His wife who has clung to him with a true woman's devotion all these years, and efforts to support and educate her daughter, just now reaching womanhood, pleads for her erring and penitent husband's release. I am of opinion that in this case the law has been fully vindicated. Among other pardons granted is one to Samuel Jones, convicted and sentenced to two years' imprisonment for counterfeiting. A POPULAR MOVE.

Washington, June 30. - Southern Democrats are especially pleased with the proposition to remove the age restriction on applicants for admission to government service under the civil service rules. At present no person over fortydve years old is eligible. "If this age restriction is removed," said a southern Democrat, "it will do more to make the that the man who threw the bomb May 4, 1886, than anything else. Under existing rules the great majority of ex-Confederates are ineligible for appointment, for all of them been much complaint against this arbitrary exclusion and there is no good reason why it should continue."
